In A Period of One
Year, Report Shows*BOARD HAS SESSION*Andalusia Add'n Delayed;
Re-Piping at High School
About Complete

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Sept. 14.—That 91 more pupils are enrolled in Bensalem township public schools than were on the roster at the start of last term is shown by the report presented to Bensalem school board, Wednesday evening, by the superintendent, William Shellenberger.

The total last year was 950 in grades one to six, and 657 in grades seven to 12. This year the starting figures are: Grades one to six, 1011, grades seven to twelve, 687.

Robert B. Vansant presided, the only absentee being J. Maurice Tomlinson.

A discussion took place on progress being made to Andalusia addition, it being stated the contractors are delayed by inability to secure priority for steel.

Re-piping at the high school building is now complete, except for new storage tank and accompanying hydro-pneumatic tank.

The parking lot at the rear of the high school is now complete. Mr. Shellenberger presented to the board a report of the two days workshop for teachers, which had proved highly successful.

The board received but one bid for fuel oil for Andalusia school, this being from Patterson Fuel Co., Philadelphia. Number five oil, which is used, is not carried by local dealers, it was stated. The bid was $0.873 per gallon.

Copies of the fall sports schedule were presented to the directors. The session adjourned at 9:30.

"On Moonlight Bay" Teams
Doris Day, Gordon MacRae

With popular song stars Doris Day and Gordon MacRae in the leading roles, Warner Bros. has put on film another of its popular musical comedy stories in the new Technicolor film, "On Moonlight Bay," Friday and Saturday at the Grand Theatre.

Set against a background of collegiate Indiana just before World War I, "On Moonlight Bay" is a whimsical and youthful comedy with plenty of nostalgic singing, dancing and laughs to please the most avid fan of light motion picture fare.

Doris Day has been brought back, together with MacRae, to follow two previous popular smash hits, "The West Point Story" and "Tea For Two." In this, she is a pretty but tom-boy type gal who is more interested in baseball—until college student Gordon MacRae turns up. Together the two fashion a number of song and dance melodies, and love comes along.

THE WAR

EIGHTH U. S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea—Allied troops gouged out limited advances today against 4,000 fiercely resisting North Koreans so well dug-in that concentrated artillery strikes failed to dislodge them. Steadily mounting action on the east-central front was still of an indecisive, see-saw nature. North of Yanggu the United Nations troops took a mountain peak, but the Reds mounted a strong counter-attack northwest of the same junction, using what front line officers said was an unusually large amount of mortar fire.

"MISTER 880" PROVED
CRUDE COUNTERFEITER*Couldn't Spell "Washington," But Gave Agents
Feeling of Frustration*START IN NOV., 1938

This final article in a series of famous cases of the U. S. Secret Service recounts the amazing "880" counterfeiting case, which inspired a popular motion picture.

By James Lee

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—

Old "Mister 880" was so crude a counterfeiter that he could not even spell the word "Washington." But he gave agents of the Secret Service a feeling of frustration for a full 10 years.

The story goes back to Nov. 19, 1938, when a bogus $1 bill appeared in New York City. It was printed on cheap paper. The etching of George Washington was almost unrecognizable. The word "Washington" was spelled "Washington."

The counterfeit was numbered "880" in Secret Service files. Similar bills began appearing at the rate of 10 or 12 a week. Agents canvassed 10,000 stores, distributed 200,000 warnings, but "880," as the inept counterfeiter came to be known, continued to operate.

A stroke of luck brought the break in the case in 1948. A fire occurred in a junk-filled little apartment at 204 West 96th street, New York. The flat was the home of 73-year-old Emerich Juetner, alias Edward Mueller, a dealer in trash he picked up on the street. Juetner was not at home when the fire started. Firemen, fighting the blaze, hurled pieces of junk.

Consider Connecting Burlington and Island

Burlington, N. J., Sept. 14.—The possibility of connecting Burlington Island with the mainland, should the Delaware River be dredged to a 40 foot channel and the material removed used for building the connecting link, is still being investigated. An inspection trip by water, land and air was recently made by members of the special committee on the development of the island. The board of island managers and the president of the board of education also went along on the trip. After circling the island by boat, the officials made a land inspection and then took off in a plane.

The special island committee was appointed recently by the president of council to make the investigation, and to gather the necessary data.

Beginning October 4th, the Mill street stores will be open Monday, Thursday and Friday evenings for the convenience of the public.

BUCKS AUTHORITIES ATTEMPTING TO HAVE BODIES OF INFANT AND A MAN
IDENTIFIED; BOTH FOUND THURSDAY*Body of Baby Found in Suitcase
Two Miles North of
New Hope*MAN ALONG THE PRR*Evidence Seventh Car of Drill Train Passed
Over the Body

Bucks County authorities are attempting to have identified two bodies found yesterday. One is that of an infant and the other is that of a man. The infant's body was found in a suitcase about two miles north of the New Hope artists' colony. The man's body was found west of the Morrisville signal tower of the P. R. R.

Lieutenant R. W. McIlheny, head of Pennsylvania Railroad police in this area, said the man appeared to be a transient worker about 35 years old. He was five feet, eight inches tall and weighed 140 pounds. In addition to work clothes he wore a green plaid shirt and a dark felt hat with no label. Beneath khaki trousers he wore a pair of blue serge pants.

The lieutenant said a check of two drill trains, working in the area about 5 a. m., showed some indication that wheels of the seventh car of one may have passed the body. The man may have been riding the freight and fell, McIlheny said.

Morrisville Police Chief John Davis and Coroner J. Alfred Rigby of Cornwells Heights took part in the investigation. The body was removed to the morgue of J. Allen Hooper in Morrisville.

The body was first seen along the tracks by tower signalmen, coming to work. They notified McIlheny.

The body of an infant girl was found in a suitcase floating in Primrose Creek at Phillips Mill about two miles north of this artists' sanctuary.

The seven-to-10-day-old girl had been strangled with a pair of woman's pajama bottoms wrapped tightly around her face and neck, state police said.

The suitcase containing the body was found wedged under a bridge by Walter Miller of New Hope. A verdict of death by strangulation was issued by Coroner J. Alfred Rigby.

State police said the baby apparently had been dead about a week. Decomposition already had begun, police reported. The body was taken to the Varcoe Funeral Home in Wycombe, Pa.

Announcement was made that Luciano Brothers have offered a $25 war bond to be awarded to one of the sixth grade graduates in 1952 for citizenship and other good traits such as those judged in awarding American Legion medals to 8th grade graduates. The three teachers will act as judges to decide the recipient of the award.

Mrs. Ralph Hart and Mrs. George Colville were appointed representatives to meet at a later date with a committee from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fire company, and the Fire Company, to arrange a community children's Christmas party.

Last year each pupil, in the room receiving the attendance banner for the month, was given a bar of candy. However, it was decided to give the teacher of the room awarded the attendance banner $1.50 this year, and they may purchase whatever they desire to benefit the pupils of that room. This month, Miss Ettinger and Mrs. Colville's room were tie. Each received $1.50.

At the November meeting, the pupils of the school will present an entertainment. The "blind pig" was awarded to Mrs. Helen Nichols.

The sick committee reported sending flowers to one member recently. Following the October meeting, there will be a Halloween party, when each attending is asked to take a hat. Prizes will be awarded for the most original, funniest and prettiest. Mrs. Helen Nichols and Mrs. Everett Forestal will act as prize committee for same.

Refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cup cakes were served by Mrs. Andrew Schaeffer and Mrs. John Kuhn.

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 14.—L. R. Walker, Chief Metallurgist and Inspector at U. S. Steel's new Fairless Works, today announced the following appointments in the Metallurgical and Inspection Department: H. F. Pietsch as assistant Chief Metallurgist and Inspector; H. J. Wolthorn, Chief Chemist; J. O. Mack, Chief Control and Development Metallurgist; D. T. Goettge, Chief Sheet Mill Metallurgist and Inspector; and R. V. A native of Munhall, Pennsylvania, Mr. Pietsch joined U. S. Steel's Homestead Works as a Metallurgical Observer upon his graduation from the University of Pittsburgh in 1937. A year later, he transferred to Irvin Works as an assistant in the metallurgical laboratory, advancing to Supervisor, Physical Testing—Tin Mill; Supervisor, Excesses—Black Plate Department; and Supervisor, Physical Testing in the Metallurgical and Inspection Department. After a brief tenure at the former Shenango Works of the Company, Mr. Pietsch returned to Irvin Works in 1942 as a Metallurgist and became successively Assistant Metallurgist, Tin Mill; Assistant Metallurgist and Inspector, Sheet Mill; and then Metallurgist and Inspector, Tin Mill, the position he held when transferred to Fairless Works.

Dr. Wolthorn joined U. S. Steel's Ohio Works, Youngstown, as an observer in the Metallurgical Department from Ohio State University, where he received his Doctor of Philosophy degree in 1934. A year later he was promoted to Chemist and by 1940 was Assistant Chief Chemist at the plant. In 1945 he was appointed Chief Chemist for Ohio Works, the position he held when transferred to Fairless Works.

Discusses Development Of Lower Bucks County

Introduced by Wilbert R. McCluer, the speaker at yesterday's Rotary Club meeting was Donald R. Perry, of the Pennsylvania Economy League. He discussed the development of lower Bucks county in the light of U. S. Steel Co. located in Falls township, and its consequences to the people and industry in general.

He delineated the changes of lower Bucks county from a primarily rural and agricultural section to a highly developed industrial region, and forecast a future which at this time can only be dimly realized.

The Pennsylvania Economy League was called in for advice by the Pennsylvania joint school board, and for suggestions on how to meet the serious problems confronting it. Before the U. S. Steel Co. located here, and prior to the announcement of the Kaiser Metal Products Co. that they expect an additional 7,000 employees, the school board had made plans as of that time. It was pointed out by a Washington authority that there are 1.65 children of school age per family. This statement was challenged and by actual checking found to be 1.28. Plans have to be devised to take care of 1390 pupils in that district it was pointed out.

Other subjects were taken up, such as water supply, sewage disposal, churches, etc.

The speaker pointed out the seriousness of meeting the challenging problems in a realistic way. He mentioned the unplanned mushroom growth of the 69th Street district in Philadelphia, the correction of which would entail an expense of about 150 million dollars today.

Two new members were introduced. The meeting was in charge of Harold W. Crooker, president.

KARL C. KING SIGNIFIES WILLINGNESS TO RUN AS REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR CONGRESSIONAL VACANCY
CREATED BY DEATH OF REPRESENTATIVE ALBERT C. VAUGHN*"High Honor to be Mentioned," Says Karl C. King Statement

The following statement was issued today by Karl C. King, head of the King Farms Company, regarding boom to send him to Congress:

"I consider it a very high honor to be mentioned for the post of Congressman from the Bucks and Lehigh Counties district.

"The fast-expanding area in Lower Bucks County will create a host of new responsibilities in Washington which I believe fully justify the selection of a Congressman from this community. I may say that I believe my long residence and intimate experience in this area give me certain special advantages for the office of Congressman.

"If elected to Congress, not only do I propose to spend my full time and energies working for the interests of the entire district, but I intend to maintain two home offices in the district, one at Allentown and the other in the Morrisville section. The purpose of these offices will be to permit the citizens of the district who have problems dealing with the Federal Government to have attention given to these matters without journeying to Washington.

"Nationally our country is at a crossroads. It has, in my opinion, only this year and next in which to turn away from threatening disaster. We have spent and borrowed ourselves to the brink of bankruptcy. In foreign affairs, long and expensive experiments have brought us to the verge of catastrophe. On the home front, we have been dominated by cronies, incompetents and pro-Communists for so long that we have almost forgotten the knack of self-government.

"I propose, if elected, to work diligently for sanity in fiscal matters, for commonsense in foreign affairs, and for common honesty in our Washington government.

"KARL C. KING."

LONG TRAILERS ARE

New Industries of The Section*31, 33, 34 FEET LONG

TULLYTOWN, Sept. 14.—With the erection of the Fairless plant of U. S. Steel Company now underway and other new manufacturing firms becoming established in lower Bucks County, there is an influx not only of new families but a number who are bringing their trailer homes with them.

Four of the trailers located in this borough are exceptionally large ones, measuring from 30 to 34 feet.

Three of the seven trailers which are to be used by the Joseph Cutchin, Jr., tract, are already in position. One trailer has been placed on the property of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pope, although the owners of the trailer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Taylor, are residing temporarily at the Pope home. The Taylors, together with their daughters, Barbara and Mary, are from Wildwood, N. J. It is anticipated that two more trailers will be located on the Pope tract.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keasler, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Marquis and children Fay, Ronald and Gary, Glen Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Gentry and daughter Holly Ann, Roanoke, Va., arrived to reside here Saturday with their 31, 33, and 34 foot trailers, which are parked on the Joseph Cutchin, Jr., tract. Messrs. Keasler, Marquis and Gentry are employed by U. S. Steel Co. The tract was cleared of small trees and bushes and graded about a month ago to accommodate these trailers and the four others who will arrive later.

PACIFIC STEEL WORKERS
CONTRIBUTE $7,790.00*Join in Raising $1,500,000
For Lower Bucks County
Hospital*PAID FOR EFFORTS

As their contribution toward the $1,500,000 Lower Bucks County Hospital Building Fund, the employees of the Bristol plant of the Pacific Steel Bolter Corporation have subscribed a total of $7,790. It was announced today by Alfred E. Lewis, chairman of the fund's employee division. Individual subscriptions averaging $61 per person were received in the company campaign led by Lawrence Strohmer, plant manager; William Rice, office manager; Edward Budzyko, plant superintendent; and Melvin Snyder and Vincent Fanni, officers of Local No. 1503, United Steel Workers of America, C. I. O.

Mr. Lewis praised the Pacific Steel workers for their enthusiastic support of the building fund program and stated that their pledges would establish the administrator's office at the new hospital. "In the past few weeks," he added, "we have seen repeated examples of the enthusiasm with which the workers of this area are giving their support to the hospital building fund. Contributions such as this from an employee group in which an in-plant solicitation has been so successfully completed are the strongest possible evidence that the people of Lower Bucks County are aware of the urgent need of the hospital and are determined that it will be built."

Employee solicitation throughout the area will continue during the month of September.

Issues Statement in Response
To Newspaper Stories
On the Subject*SELECTION SATURDAY*Selection of Nominee To Be Made at Joint Conference

In a brief statement issued today, Karl C. King, Morrisville, head of the King Farms Company and nationally known for large-scale mechanized farming, signified his willingness to run as Republican nominee for the Congressional vacancy created by the death September 1 of Representative Albert C. Vaughn.

The statement was in response to newspaper stories yesterday citing the fact that a boom for Mr. King was sweeping through Bucks County.

If nominated and elected, Mr. King would be the first Congressman from Bucks County since the death of the Hon. Henry W. Watson in 1933. During the eighteen years, Lehigh County has furnished four Congressmen.

Selection of the Republican nominee is the duty of a conference committee appointed to represent the two counties of the Eighth Pennsylvania Congressional District—Bucks and Lehigh.

This committee has been named by the chairmen of the two counties, and will meet in Philadelphia tomorrow.

In his statement commenting on the reports of the movement in Bucks county to name him at this meeting, Mr. King said that he considered it a high honor to be suggested for the post, that if elected he would devote his full time and energies to the office, that he would maintain home offices for his constituents at Allentown and Morrisville, and briefly outlined his political concepts.

He described the nation as being on the brink of bankruptcy at home, and on the verge of catastrophe abroad, and said that long domination by "cronies, incompetents and pro-Communists" had almost brought the nation to the verge of disaster.

SPEND THOSE PENNIES!

Most famous of our early preachers of thrift was Benjamin Franklin, who, 40 years before he signed the Declaration of Independence, wrote in "Hints to Those That Would Be Rich":
A penny saved is twopence dear.
A pin a day's a groat a year.

Other days, other manners, particularly when there is a left-wing copper strike on and the government shrinks from using any more copper than it has to in fractional coinage. That is why, 215 years later, Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, director of the mint, urges that pennies come out of hiding and be put promptly into circulation. She says:

"If each of the estimated 38,700,000 American families should release from hiding and return to business 10 1-cent pieces, over 1,200 tons of scarce copper would be saved."

That, Mrs. Ross asserted, would save the mint five months of over-production. She did not explain why so many pennies have gone into hiding. One of the most current expressions is "Pennies don't buy anything," including newspapers, candy and lollipops. There are doubtless a good many people who have bowls full of pennies stored away because they cannot be "bothered" with them.

Franklin was nothing if not practical. Were he alive today, he probably would accord fully with Mrs. Ross. We do not see him in haste relief, however, on our copper money. That is reserved for Lincoln, whose place in our paper currency is on the $5 bill. Franklin's face is not seen so frequently. But if anybody wants a good engraving of him, let him practice the thrift Franklin counseled and get himself a $100 Treasury note.

WEBSTER ON INFLATION

In his dictionary Mr. Webster explained that inflation is a "disproportionate and relatively sharp and sudden increase in the quantity of money or credit, or both, relative to the amount of exchange business."

This means, in effect, that as money increases in quantity it suffers in quality, in a manner of speaking. The prime effect of inflation is to make it harder for consumers to get the things they want and need because their money will buy less. This can happen even when consumer goods are plentiful, inflation through wage and other increases having put costs of production at high levels, with resulting higher prices.

Then the government comes along and attempts to right the situation through controls. Various devices are tried. Price controls are one of the favorites. If prices of consumer goods are reduced to the point where they no longer show a profit for the manufacturer, operating under inflationary conditions, he makes fewer units or shuts down entirely. The resulting shortage sends prices skyward, and nothing has been gained or corrected.

Economists say the age of inflation is here, and there is little to be done about it until it has run its course.

"Mister 880" Proved Crude Counterfeiter

through the window. A snowstorm came up and the snow covered the junk, which had fallen into a vacant lot.

A few days later the snow melted. Boys playing in the lot found several $1 bills which they promptly called "play money." The kids found Juettner's plates, too. One boy took them home. His father notified police, who called the Secret Service.

The agents questioned the boys, then went to Juettner's apartment and arrested the old man. He admitted that he had made the $1 bills and passed them for 10 years, whenever he was "very hard up." Eventually, the Secret Service men removed 24 tons of debris from the apartment, scrutinizing every bit of it. They seized a printing press and other counterfeiting plates, along with photographic negatives and printed impressions. Juettner pleaded guilty to possession of the plates and to passing the counterfeits. The government said that in view of his age, it would not object to a suspended sentence.

Judge John W. Clancy, however, declared that counterfeiting was a serious offense, and sentenced "Mister 880" to nine months in prison. It was pointed out that the old man would serve a shorter term if he were sentenced to a year and a day, because he could be paroled in four months. The sentence thereupon was changed.

The story was woven into a singularly heart-warming movie, and "Mister 880," one of the least-skilled of counterfeiters, found himself famous as a character who kept the Secret Service hopping for 10 years.

George Quinn and Edward Schleicher were nominated as sergeants-at-arms.

Carnival Worker Pays Fine and Costs

A prison sentence was suspended. Getchell was arrested July 12th, following the complaint of a three-and-one-half-year-old boy. Officers Vincent Faragalli and John Dugan made the arrest.
Because the evidence was insufficient on alleged serious morals charges, the Court allowed the defendant to plead nolo contendere on an indecent assault charge.
The defendant, who is married, the father of several children, and from Hallowell, Maine, admitted he had been drinking. He was told by Judge Keller never to come back to Bucks County.
Lewis P. Marlin, 50, Walnut avenue, Trevese, who pleaded guilty to moral charges involving a 15-year-old Eddington boy, was sentenced by President Judge Hiram H. Keller to serve not less than one nor more than three years in prison, pay a fine of $5 and the costs of prosecution.
Marlin, who is married and the father of two sons, aged 17 and 7, was arrested July 17th by Cpl. Charles A. Jones, of the Langhorne sub-station of the State Police, following a complaint by an Eddington grandfather. The defendant, who was engaged in the hauling business, picked up the youth who was returning from a swimming pool and en route to his home in Eddington.
The offenses took place in the defendant's home while his family was at the shore.
William Bartholomae, Cedar street, was treated at Hiramman Hospital yesterday for a small laceration of the scalp, after striking a "mixing well" while employed at a local bakery.

Today's Quiet Moment

By Lester E. Paul
Stated Supply Minister
Newportville Community Church
(Presbyterian)

I stepped into the candy store to get a pound of chocolates for my wife. One particular kind struck my fancy, and I said to the clerk, "I'll have a pound of those." Evidently it was an unusual request, for the clerk said, "I can make up a box of mixed chocolates for you." I'm glad she said that, for it dawned on me that variety is really more wonderful than sameness.

And I thought of God's "Variety garden." It was a good God, who made us different from one another as individuals. Wouldn't it have been terribly confusing if God had seen fit to make us all just alike? I'll just let you imagine how confusing it would be.

And, I'm inclined to think that variety in religious groups must also be pleasing to God. There is a possibility that it would be tragic to regiment the spiritual natures of men.

While we enjoy our varieties ("diversities") Paul calls them in 1 Corinthians 12, let us remember that we are really the various members of the Body of Christ, and the unifying principle is a sincere regard for the welfare of the whole Body (which is another way of saying "love").

house, committee—Mrs. William Cooper Hunneman, Miss Poneck, Mrs. David Taylor, Mrs. James C. Usilton, Mrs. William J. Yorke; panel discussion, "Constitution of the United States of America," music.
